1 READING • A description of a place

1 ★ Read the text. Tick (✓) the correct box.

Miniland is … London.

a ☐ in b ☐ near c ☐ far from

A Imagine you're a tourist and it's your first time in London. You're interested in all the famous places like Trafalgar Square, Tower Bridge and Covent Garden Market. But you have only got one day to see the city.

B There's an answer – visit Miniland! It isn't in the middle of London, it's at the Legoland park in Windsor. This is only half an hour by train from London's Paddington Station and it's open March to November from 10 a.m.

C Miniland has got some nice buildings from Edinburgh, Amsterdam and Paris, but there are hundreds of interesting places from London! There are pretty parks like St James's Park or shops like Hamleys. All of these places are very small and they're all in Lego bricks.

D There are about 40 million bricks in Miniland. One building has got 200,000 bricks – that's the Canary Wharf office building.

E Visit the places in Miniland and take photos of 'London' for your family. It's not real London, but relax – you're a good tourist!

2 ★★ Read the text again. Match sentences 1–4 with paragraphs A–E.

Parks and buildings – all in Lego bricks. C

A busy school day for the children of Genguan village

The children of Genguan village in the south of China get up early every day and have breakfast. After breakfast, they start their long journey to school. But these boys and girls don't go with their parents – they always go with their head teacher, Mr Xu.

Mr Xu doesn't take the students by coach or minibus. He goes with the children on foot and they walk on a path to their school in the mountains. The mountains are very quiet and pretty. But the journey is dangerous because the path is old and small.

The children walk behind Mr Xu for an hour. They go through tunnels and they walk on a very dangerous part of the path too. There is a safer path to the school, but it takes two hours. The school is called Banpo School and it's in a nice place in the mountains. It isn't very big and there are only forty-nine students.

At school, the children all have classes with their teachers and in the break, the boys and girls play or chat with friends. When school finishes, it's time to go home, and the students start their long and difficult journey again.

3 READING • Some amazing creatures

1 ★ Read the text. Choose the correct answer.

The butterflies are famous because they …

a fly to very cold places.
b go on a long journey.
c always move south on the same day.

Amazing butterflies

A Imagine thousands and thousands of colourful butterflies in the sky. They are orange and black with enormous wings.

Monarch butterflies in the sky

B These are the famous monarch butterflies and they are on a very special journey. Every year, they fly more than 4,500 kilometres from Canada and North America down to an area in the mountains of Mexico. It is the longest journey of any butterfly in the world.

C Their journey usually starts in September or October and it takes about two months. These beautiful butterflies can sometimes fly more than 100 kilometres in one day and they often fly very high too – perhaps at 1.6 kilometres in the sky.

D But not all the butterflies get to the mountains of Mexico. Many don't survive the long and dangerous journey because they become very cold.

E Monarchs are the most famous butterflies in North America. There are books, TV programmes and websites about them. There's an amazing 3D film too – it's called Flight of the Butterflies. Watch it and you can go on their long journey too.

The school is different because the students …

a learn to make boats.
b have all their lessons on boats.
c go out on boats in the school day.

Windermere School

A It's 8 a.m. and the students in Year 7 at Windermere boarding school are having breakfast. They're all wearing school uniform, ready for their first lesson at 8.45.

B Perhaps you're thinking: 'That sounds like the start of the day at a normal boarding school.' But Windermere School in the north of England isn't a normal school.

C When these eleven and twelve-year-old students are in class and they look out of the window, they can see something amazing. It's Lake Windermere – one of the most beautiful lakes in England.

D Most days, the students study subjects like maths, art, English or science from 8.45 to 4.00, with lunch at 12.45. But every two weeks, all the boys and girls go out of the school for a morning or an afternoon.

E Then it's time for a special visit to the national park around the school. Students climb in the mountains here or go on the lake in boats – the school has got a lot of boats and the students often use these.

F 'I love our time on the lake!' says twelve-year-old Ellie. 'It's one of the best things about life here at the school.'
